

THE ALEC JAMES SCHAKE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Alec James Schake Memorial Scholarship was established to honor the life and legacy of Alec Schake, a wonderful young man, son, grandson, nephew, cousin, friend, student, and member of the bleeding disorder community. Alec was incredibly kind, smart and thrived on learning new things. He cared deeply about helping people and making a difference in the world. In his short life he made a lasting positive impact on family and friends and this scholarship is designed to support other young people as they begin college to further their educational dreams and desire to make a difference.

The scholarship:

One-time (non-renewable) $1,500 scholarship for a high school senior who is a member of the bleeding disorder community and engaged with services at the Hemophilia Center of Western Pennsylvania and pursuing college
